On display and in-store PromoStretch® Silicone Bands are the perfect way to draw attention to items of interest while still promoting your brand. Match your logo with a slogan and add a creative design to your project. The quality printing does not rub off or crack and maintains its vibrant colors. These bands will outlast their initial use and carry your message when customers reuse your band.

Elevate your label from plain to memorable in a moment with the addition of a PromoStretch® Silicone Band. Add words, phrases and QR codes to support your brand message. Then go a step farther with color coded identification to identify scents, flavors or differences in your products. Easily add unique event information or dress up a product for the holidays to add merchandising value. This adjustable labeling option opens possibilities traditional labeling just can’t provide.
